The promotion may end before the announced end date when it has reached to its expected number of sales and the decision will be made by each accommodation.

Q&A about the offer

- What is the offer about (Morioka no Yado Ouen Wari)?

It is a program to support the local accommodations in Morioka given the fact that their sales have declined drastically due to COVID-19. Anyone who reside in Iwate can use the discount.

- What does the offer include?

You will receive maximum 4,000 yen (per person) discount on your accommodation when staying at the facilities listed below.

Note that "accommodation cost" refers to costs such as stay without meal or stay with meal (excludes tax, municipal tax and hot spring tax), and it does not include cost of alcoholic beverages.

In case accommodation price (excluding Tax and Hot spring tax) is less than the maximum discount amount (4,000 yen), the accommodation cost will be the maximum discount you receive.

- Is my child eligible for the discount?

Yes. Infants and children are eligible for the discount. However, note that any options that do not include accommodation cost are excepted from the discount.

- Can I book my accommodation through a third-party booking site?

It depends on the accommodation so please confirm directly before booking online.

- What ID will I need to bring?

Please refer to the list below. Note that you may not be able to apply for the discount if you fail to display one of the IDs below.

- Driver's License • Health Insurance Card (one has an address) • My Number Card •

- Residence Card (Zairyu Card) • Permanent Residency Certificate

- Copy of Residence certificate (Jyumin Hyo)

- Other certificates issued by public institutions

- I did not know about the promotion and I have already finished my stay.

Unfortunately, backdating is not permitted and the discount cannot be re-applied to the incurred accommodation charge.
